

NORFOLK COUNTY GOLF UNION

The Purpose and Aims of the County Union

The NCGU is a non-profit organisation which devotes its resources to the administration of amateur golf in Norfolk. Its work includes the assessment of courses for Standard Scratch Scores, handicapping, County Championships, Inter-county and Inter-club Match Play events, Junior Golf and Coaching opportunities, and provides advice and guidance on a wide range of golf related subjects.

It is a body dedicated to encouraging and promoting Male Amateur Golf throughout the County in a manner relevant to, and in the best interests of, its members whilst upholding the outstanding qualities of honesty, integrity and sportsmanship associated with the game of Golf.

The overall aim of the Norfolk County Golf Union is to promote, administer and encourage amateur golf throughout the County. This aim is fundamental to the health and future development of the sport at local level.

The Norfolk County Golf Union has the following individual aims ;

To promote the game of golf and to increase people's awareness.

To encourage more people to play the game of golf regardless of age, gender or background.

To assist with the provision of opportunities for people to sustain their involvement and regularly participate in golf.

To help provide a safe and secure environment for junior and handicapped persons and to ensure that where-ever possible best practices are adopted at all affiliated clubs.

To provide education on the rules and etiquette of the game.

To help improve the accessibility and affordability making it easier to join a golf club.

To monitor golfing trends in order to assess where future resources should be focused.

To increase the playing standards of golfers particularly those at Category One level to produce Regional and National Champions.

Norfolk County Golf Union Rules and Regulations

1. RULES

1.1 The Union shall be called the Norfolk County Golf Union

1.2 Subject to the over-riding authority of the Union, the government of the Union and disposal of its property and funds shall be vested in the Council consisting of the President, the Vice President, past Presidents, The County Captain, past County Captains, the Honorary Secretary, the Honorary Treasurer, and the Union Representatives on the Council of England Golf, subject to the proviso that if any Past President or Past County Captain fails to attend at least one duly convened meeting of the Council during a period of three consecutive years he shall, unless the Council shall for good reason otherwise determine, be deemed to have resigned his membership of the Council. In addition the Council shall have power to appoint, and co-opt as ex officio members of the Council the following officers: Seniors' Captain, Seniors' Golf Secretary, Junior Golf Delegate, Junior Golf Secretary, County Second Team Captain, County Match Secretary, Child Welfare Officers, Scratch League Secretary, the Honorary Secretary's Assistant, and any other officer the Council deems appropriate. At all Council Meetings eight shall form a quorum.

1.3 All Golf and Artisan Clubs in Norfolk shall be eligible for membership. The former as Members and the latter as Associate Members. Each member club shall appoint a male member as its representative to the County Union. These members will form a sub-committee of the Council that will meet a minimum of twice annually with the County Executive Committee.

1.4 Every Member Club may be represented at all General Meetings of the Union by the Captain, Secretary (or their nominees) and one other Club Member and every Associate Member Club by its Honorary Secretary or its nominee. Save as provided in Rule 1.6, all Clubs represented and the President, Vice President and Hon. Secretary or their nominees shall be entitled to vote at all General Meetings. The County President shall have a second or casting vote. Each Annual General Meeting of the Union shall be held during the months of March or April. A special General Meeting may be convened at any time on request in writing made by at least three Member Clubs. A clear fourteen days' notice of any General Meeting and the business to be transacted thereat shall be given to the Clubs who are for the time being Member Clubs or Associate Member Clubs of the Union, and only business of which such notice has been given shall be transacted. At all General Meetings twelve shall form a quorum.

- 1.5 The President, the Vice President, the County Captain, the Honorary Secretary, the Honorary Treasurer, the Union Voting Representative for England Golf, the Immediate Past President, the Seniors' Captain/Administrator and the Junior Manager shall constitute the Executive Committee of the Union.

Propositions for election to an Office of the Union shall be tabled at the Annual General Meeting. The Officers of the Union shall be:

The President (elected annually and may serve a maximum of two terms), the Vice-President (elected annually and may serve a maximum of two terms), the County Captain (elected annually and may serve a maximum of three terms), the Honorary Secretary (elected annually), the Honorary Treasurer (elected annually) and the Voting Representative for England Golf (elected annually), the Junior Section Representative (elected annually) and the Seniors' County Captain (elected annually and may serve a maximum of three terms)

The Executive Committee is charged with ensuring that all Rules contained in the Constitution and all Regulations governing Championships, Competitions and Matches are complied with. At all Executive Committee Meetings four (4) shall form a quorum.

- 1.5.1 The Norfolk County Golf Union adopt and recognize the Anti Doping Policy and the Discipline and Grievance Procedure of England Golf as currently in force and amended by England Golf from time to time. The Executive Committee is authorised to deal with any breach of rule or discipline, and to impose sanctions upon any club, player or person deemed to have breached any rule or discipline.

In the case of a club, such sanctions may include suspension or disqualification from participating in Union activities, including golf meetings and competitions.

In the case of a player such sanctions may include suspension or disqualification from all or any County Golf Meetings or competitions. These to be set down in the conditions of play for the competition as follows.

a. In the event of a player failing to turn up the player is sent a letter by the County Secretary requesting reasons for his 'no show'. The Executive Committee would then decide whether the reason was valid and if not a ban from the same event the following year would be issued.

b. In the event of a player turning up on the day, walking off the course and leaving the club without giving a valid reason to the official in charge of the competition, a letter would be sent by the County Secretary requesting reasons why. The Executive Committee would then decide whether the reasons were valid and if not such disciplinary action would be taken by the Executive Committee as it saw fit.

c. In the event of a player failing to play the designated holes of the competition, a warning letter would be sent stating that they had entered an 18, 36 or 72 hole competition, whichever the case may be, and should have completed the round unless retiring through injury. The Executive Committee would then decide whether the reasons were valid and if not such disciplinary action would be made by the Executive Committee as it saw fit.

Any Club, player or person brought before the Executive Committee for alleged breach of rule or discipline, if found guilty, has the right to appeal to the Council of the Union. An appeal must be lodged in writing not more than thirty (30) days from the date of the Executive Committee decision to impose sanctions.

- 1.6 All Member Clubs and Associate Member Clubs are responsible for the collection and payment of an annual affiliation fee to the Union at the amount determined at the preceding Annual General Meeting. The annual affiliation fee is payable for each home member and each away club member, whose home club is not affiliated to this Union on a per capita basis for every playing member. Each Club, as part of their annual membership renewal process, shall collect the affiliation fees from its members and pay those fees collected to the Union twice per calendar year. The first payment will be within sixty days of the Club's annual membership renewal date and the second payment six months later. For those Clubs with no one fixed date for renewal of membership payment will be on dates to be agreed between the Club and the Union. In addition, all Member Clubs and Associate Member Clubs shall pay the annual affiliation fee per home club member payable by this Union to England Golf in accordance with their Rule 2.1. For the purpose of this Rule, the term 'member' shall mean Male members who have a contract with the Club providing playing rights on a SSS rated course. Failure by a playing member to pay the annual affiliation fees shall not exonerate his affiliated Club from its obligation to pay the annual affiliation fees for that playing member.

All affiliation fees shall become due as per above in each year. A Club shall be considered in arrear if their affiliation fees remain unpaid three months following the date upon which it became due and its membership of the Union shall cease and become void. A club whose member's affiliation fees are in arrear shall not be entitled to attend or vote at meetings of the Union nor its members be entitled to take part in any Golf Meeting of the Union

- 1.7 Any club wishing to resign its membership must give notice thereof in writing to the Honorary Secretary on or before the 30th November in any year otherwise the Club shall be liable to pay its subscription for the ensuing year.
- 1.8 County Card and Reciprocal County Card Schemes - Individual Membership
Men members of Clubs belonging to the Union become 'Individual Members' of the Union and shall be entitled to a free 'County Card' on payment by the clubs of the Annual County Union Subscription which shall be fixed by the Council from time to time.
The County Card shall entitle the 'Individual Member' to one day's golf per annum on the courses of all member clubs, subject to reserved periods and days specified by the clubs, on payment of not more than 50% of the current Day Rate Green Fee.
- Providing their Club participates in the Reciprocal County Card Scheme, 'Individual Members' are also entitled to obtain playing privileges from-participating Clubs in the Bedfordshire, Essex, Hertfordshire and Suffolk Golf Unions and any other County Union which subsequently joins the scheme which is also free of charge. Subject to prior arrangements with the Clubs concerned 'Individual Members' may play the courses on payment of up to 50% discount of the current green fee on any day with the exception of the periods and days reserved as stated on the County Card or Reciprocal County Card.
- 1.9 The Honorary Secretary shall record in a book kept for the purpose, correct Minutes of the proceedings of all meetings of the Council and of the Union and shall produce such books at all meetings.
The Honorary Treasurer shall record in another book or maintain Computer Records kept for the purpose of all the financial transactions of the Union for which he shall be answerable to the Council.
- 1.10 Council meetings may be convened at any time by the Honorary Secretary or on written request by any two members of the Council.
- 1.11 No Rule or Regulation of the Union shall be repealed or altered and no new Rule or Regulation shall be made save by a majority of two-thirds of the Club representatives and the three voting Council Members present at any General Meeting of the Union. Twenty-one day's notice of the proposed alterations shall be given to the Honorary Secretary who shall in turn give 14 days' notice to each Club belonging to the Union setting out the proposed amendment.
- 1.12 The recruitment of officials and coaches who are in receipt of an honorarium or fees must be carried out by the advertising of the position and a subsequent interview procedure of selected candidates. The selection panel will be decided by the Executive Committee.
